

C90

1912 Dates J-BK

4 BC - 97 AD

APOLLONIUS TYANAEUS (4? BC - 97? AD) was a Pythagorean and a reputed worker of miracles

c 90AD

1912 Dates J-BK

1st cen AD

APION

In Alexandria grammarian. We know little about him except from Josephus's tract "Against APION". He lived and taught in Rome in the reign of Claudius. He wrote "History of Civilizing in Egypt" which contains the famous story of Androcles and the lion.

~~1912 Dates J-BK~~

~~90-99? (91?)~~

~~99?~~

St. Clement I succeeded
ANACLETUS (90-99?)
as 4th Bishop of Rome.

c 90 AD

In time of the 2nd Temple, it appears from the MISHNAH that the priests had a court to which witnesses came and reported. This function was afterwards taken over by the civil court

C 90 C.E. = A.D.

Rabbis met at JAMNIA in Palestine. The present list of books in the Old Testament was first proposed by these Rabbis.

The Wisdom of Solomon is one of the Books of APOCRYPHA, a collection of Jewish writings that was highly respected but not included when the present list of books was selected.

90AD.

1912 Dates J-BK

ARMENIA is lost to PARTHIA.

c 40⁹⁰-65

John's gospel
Some say about 90

90-100

DURANT

Gospel According to St. Luke has generally been assigned to last decade of 1st century

C90
62-110

1912 Dates J-BK

Pliny the Younger
"Epistulae" or 10 books of letters;
"Panegyricus" an adulation of the Emperor Trajan,

by PLINY THE YOUNGER (62-110) (Gaius Plinius Caecilius SECUNDUS) a nephew of PLINY the Elder

the Johannine epistles.

90

DURANT

EPIC TETUS

90

Emperor Domitian chose Nerva to serve as Consul alongside him